

LETTERS PATENT CONFERRING ARMORIAL BEARINGS ON DALE HOJUNG LEE

TO ALL AND SINGULAR who shall read these letters, D'Arcy, Baron Anfalas in the Kingdom of Gondor, Member of the Most Venerable Order of the Hospital of St John of Jerusalem and of the Order of the Unity of the Empire in the Kingdom of Canada, Academician of the International Heraldic Academy, Fellow of the Royal Heraldry Society of Canada and of the Society of Antiquaries of London, and Anor Principal King of Arms of the Realms of Middle-earth, sends greetings in the name of their King.

WHEREAS I have received a warrant from His Grace John, Duke of Númenor, Regent of Gondor and Arnor and Guardian of the Crown, instructing me to devise and confer armorial ensigns in the form of Arms and a Crest upon DALE HOJUNG LEE, whom he has promoted to the dignity of Knight Bachelor of the Two Kingdoms, I hereby devise and assign to him the following ensigns:

Arms, to be borne on shield, coat, and flags:

Per pale azure and Or, a rod of Asclepius formed from a shinbone palewise enfiling a serpent, between in dexter and sinister chief and at the base-point a formalized hibiscus flower, and between to the dexter and sinister a fleur-de-lis, all counterchanged.

Crest, to be borne on a knight's helm and as a badge on a field of the liveries:

Out of a wreath of the liveries, azure and Or, a bush proper, from which grow to the dexter a formalized hibiscus flower and to the sinister a fleur-de-lis, both Or.

In witness whereof I hereunto set my sign manual this second day of February in the Gregorian Calendar, and in the year of Our Lord 2019, being the nineteenth day of Ninui in the seven thousand five hundred and seventy-first of the Fourth Age.

A stylized, cursive signature of the name 'Anfalas' in black ink.

Anfalas, Anor King of Arms
