The musical score is written for a single melodic line in treble clef. It begins with a key signature of one flat (Bb) and a 4/4 time signature. The first staff starts with a repeat sign and a measure rest for 8 measures, followed by the lyrics 'Kings of the West, who reigned in Nú - men - or, We'. The melody continues through several staves, with lyrics 'raise your stand - ard on a for - eign shore Where it will fly in', 'glo - ry ev - er - more: We shall de - fend it, Un - til the King Re - turn.', 'If we face sol - diers fierce or war - fare long, We still can hear your', 'an - cient tri - umph song: Our hearts grow brave a - gain, our arms - grow -', 'strong: We shall fight - no - bly, Un - til the King Re - turn.', 'And when the bat - tles end and swords are sheathed, If we as vic - tors', 'be with lau - rel wreathed, Still this high mot - to ev - er shall - be -', and 'breathed: "Let us rule - wise - ly, Un - til the King Re - turn!"'. The score includes various musical notations such as eighth notes, quarter notes, half notes, and rests. There are also dynamic markings like '8', '13', '19', '25', '31', '36', '45', '51', and '56' indicating measure numbers. The key signature changes to one sharp (F#) at measure 45. The score ends with a double bar line.
